

The Epiphany of Our Lord Chalking the Door

On the Epiphany of Our Lord, Thursday, January 6th, family and friends gather at the main entrances to homes or apartments — nursing home quarters, extended care facility, hospital rooms! — and ask God's blessing on their dwellings and on all who live or visit there.

Leadership may be shared with a change of voice at each Leader's part (L).

- L Peace be to this house and to all who enter here.
- L A reading from Proverbs: "By wisdom a house is built, and through understanding it is established; through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures."
- L Let us pray: Gracious God, as a shining star once guided the magi to the birthplace of the infant Jesus, so enable those who dwell here to be your light in the world; through Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Using chalk (hence, "Chalking the Door"), people are invited to inscribe the lintel of the home (the horizontal frame above the door) with the inscription shown below. The letters C M B come from the traditional (9th century) names for the "three kings" — Caspar, Melchior & Balthazar. Some also suggest the Latin Christus Mansionem Benedicat or "May Christ bless this dwelling!"

Each person is afforded a turn to make a chalk mark:

20 + C + M + B + 22

- L A reading from Isaiah: "The effect of righteousness is peace, and the result of righteousness, quietness and trust forever. My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and quiet places."

People may join hands or extend their hands outward and upward (orans) for the prayers.

- L Let us pray: Sovereign God, we pray that you will bless this home and all who live here with your gracious presence, that your love may be our inspiration, your wisdom our guide, your truth our light, and your peace our benediction; through Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.
- L Lord, remember your children and teach us to pray: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.
- L May the Lord watch + over our going out and our coming in, from this time forth and forevermore. Amen.
